Rev. Jose E. Fetzer, S.J. – Retreat Director

Our Christian Call to Sanctity

Fr. Jose E. Fetzer, S.J. is a native of Lima, Peru. He is a graduate of St. Louis University and the Jesuit School of Theology at Weston, MA. He has taught high school and worked in prison ministry, but most of his career has been as a spiritual director and retreat leader. After leading retreats for several years at Our Lady of Montserrat Retreat Center (TX), he has been in residence at Ignatius House since 2011.

Ignatius House Retreat Center is the perfect place for meditation, pray and self-reflection. Located in Sandy Springs, Georgia, a suburb of Atlanta, the Center occupies 20 heavily wooded acres overlooking the Chattahoochee River. The expansive campus feature indigenous trees, plants, wildlife, and even a waterfall. A three-tiered deck, gazebos, and benches provide quiet resting places for meditation, introspection, and prayer. There are walking trails through woods and along the river's edge. There is a small meditation chapel and a bookstore. Mass is celebrated in the beautiful St. Ignatius Chapel which overlooks the river. All rooms are private, with private bath.

Schedule – The retreat begins with Mass, a reception and dinner on Friday evening and concludes on Sunday after Mass and lunch. There will be six talks given by Fr. Fetzer, Mass each day, Confession, Stations of the Cross, and ample time set aside for personal and quiet reflection.
