Spring Retreat
St. Mary's Seminary and University – Baltimore, Maryland
June 16 – 17, 2012

Rev. Thomas R. Hurst, S.S., S.T.L., Ph.D. – Retreat Director
President - Rector, St. Mary's Seminary & University

Being and Building the Church

Leading the Spring Retreat will be Father Thomas Hurst, S.S., the President-Rector of the University since 2007 and an Associate Professor of Sacred Scripture. Father is a graduate of Niagara University (B.A.), St. Mary's Seminary & University (S.T.M., S.T.L.) and the Catholic University of America (M.A., Ph.D.).

St. Mary's Seminary and University, founded in 1791, is the first Roman Catholic seminary in the United States.

The Beaux Arts building with its inscription Go Teach All Nations, is a landmark in Baltimore.

In addition to the University's traditional buildings and beautiful wooded campus, the conference center is a state-of-the-art facility with 32 private sleeping rooms, excellent meeting spaces, and two beautiful chapels.

St. Mary's Seminary Roland Park

Retreat Schedule - The two-day retreat (9:00 AM Saturday)-(11:00 AM Sunday) will include Mass both days, the Sacrament of Reconciliation, four conferences by Father Hurst, and plenty of time for quiet reflection.

All members of the Order are invited, as are their spouses, candidates and members of the Auxiliary. The price is $275 for people staying overnight in the retreat house, and $195 for "commuters". Both prices include all meals, with coffee and snacks available throughout the day and evening.
