

Father Eric Hollas:

Fr. Eric Hollas, OSB, is a Benedictine monk and priest of Saint John's Abbey in Colledgeville, MN. He was born in Oklahoma City, and he received his B.A. in history at Princeton University. Following seminary studies at Saint John's, he received the Ph.D. in medieval studies at Yale University. His special interests include the history of Spain in the Middle Ages, the history of monasticism in medieval Europe, and the history of the book; and he is a member of the Medieval Academy of America. Fr. Eric is a member of the Western Association of the Order of Malta, and he serves as chief chaplain of the Subpriory of Our Lady of Philermo. In 1980 he became a member of the theology faculty at Saint John's University (MN), and from 1993-2002 he served as the Executive Director of the Hill Museum & Manuscript Library at Saint John's. He currently serves as Deputy to the President for Advancement, at Saint John's University. In addition, he was instrumental in beginning and bringing to completion The Saint John's Bible, which is the first hand-written, illuminated and monumental Bible to be produced by a Benedictine abbey since the 15th century.
